

RICHMONDTIMES > Teacher Quiz

How well do you know your teaching terms? Try our mini-quiz on language learning expressions.

1 A strategy aimed at getting students to access their existing knowledge on a particular topic in order to assist with the assimilation of new information.

Answer: Activation of p_ _ _ _ knowledge

2 Possessing knowledge of two languages; typically it refers to someone who can speak and write in these two languages.

Answer: Bi_ _ _ _ _

3 An activity that is used to generate ideas related to a topic or task. It is often carried out in groups with no restrictions on the quality of ideas. Once ideas have been generated, they are then evaluated and a decision is made about which one to pursue.

Answer: Brain_ _ _ _ _

4 A specific proposal developed by a learner, teacher or institution to address problems or difficulties or to meet a desired goal.

Answer: An a_ _ _ _ _ plan

5 The emotional aspect of experience and learning.

Answer: The aff_ _ _ _ _ domain

6 The process of evaluating and measuring an individual's achievement. This may be carried out through tests or monitoring ongoing coursework.

Answer: Ass_ _ _ _ _

7 The process of identifying standards to use in identifying minimal levels, or for determining relative performances through the comparison of results.

Answer: Ben_ _ _ _ _

8 A form of learning that integrates e-learning techniques (online learning systems, interactive websites, discussion boards, e-mail, etc.) with traditional teaching methods such as face-to-face teaching, lectures, in-person discussions, seminars or tutorials.

Answer: Bl_ _ _ _ _ learning